

Your choice

Cruel
Terrifyingly gruesome Inhumane

Taken away so quickly Barely able to explain,
my unbearable pain

No tears left to shed
Only a void in my soul
It was a choice...

Nothing left to fill their place,
but smoke that leaves a cloudy trace

How do you live with yourself
Is your conscience not a killer

There is a choice,
there always is...
Silence is a killer,
you are as guilty as any sinner

It is time to be humane Stop the pain
Stop being vain

Save lives
Children, men and wives Future generations
secure our future,
making sure history does not repeat itself

Injustices of the past will not mould the future Democracy will last
There is always a choice

Do not be a silent voice

It is your conscious, patriotic choice
