CTHGC ANNUAL CREATIVE PROJECT

Learners are invited to create a memorial or commemorative piece in recognition of South Africa's Apartheid past, and to share within it a message of hope for our future.

WHAT IS THE AIM OF THE PROJECT?

- To understand why we remember, and to be active participants in the process of remembering our own past.
- To learn about the Holocaust, how this history has been remembered and commemorated, and what relevance this has to memorialisation in South Africa.
- Through remembering, to work towards making "Never Again" a reality.

GUIDELINES FOR YOUR SUBMISSION

- Using Holocaust memorials and commemoration as your inspiration, think about how we can memorialise people, places or events in South Africa.
- Create a memorial or commemorative piece that remembers events/ people/ places in your community, suburb, city or country during the Apartheid era.
- Your creative project should have within it a positive message for our future.
- All entries must be accompanied by a rationale (approximately half to 1 page), explaining your creative process. Why have you chosen to memorialize this person, event or place? What is your concept? Who is the memorial or commemoration aimed at, and where/ how will they access it?
